This masterful survey of world religions presents a clear and concise portrait of the history, beliefs, and practices of Eastern and Western religions. The new edition contains added material and has been revised throughout.

The authors, both respected scholars of world religions, have over fifty years of teaching experience combined. Their book is accessibly written for introductory classes, can be easily adapted for one- or two-semester courses, and presents a neutral approach for broad classroom use. Pedagogical aids include further reading suggestions, photographs, sidebars, and pronunciation guides. Useful resources for professors are available upon request, including over 250 PowerPoint/Keynote slides and a multiple-choice question database with over 800 questions.
