Find out what Xav Benedict was thinking when he met his soulmate Crystal for the first time, in this FREE captivating short story. The Benedict brothers all have different abilities and powers.

One can see the future, another can manipulate fire. Xav Benedict is the third youngest of the seven brothers and he has the power to heal. Crystal however is one patient who isn't interested in being made better by Xav. It's hate at first sight as his playful ways fail to charm her, but Xav just can't stay away. He knows that she's hiding something, even if Crystal doesn't know it herself yet. Will he be able to tease the truth from her? A brilliant addition to the Savants series by Joss Stirling for both new and old fans alike.
