This compelling true account describes in detail the moments leading up to, during, and the aftermath of the brutally violent attack. Soyini Taylor Walton shares her harrowing life experience of being shot at the hands of an estranged boyfriend, and completing her journey of self-discovery to find her "heaven" on the other side. Her story is shocking, inspirational, and will keep you on the edge of your seat. This is a tremendous tale of how true life can turn into true crime in an instant, and how a tragedy can turn into an unimaginable triumph. This is a cautionary tale for men and women in relationships who may miss or ignore "red flags." This book is mandatory reading for everyone in or looking for a love relationship. Your life may depend on it!
