After the busiest months of her life, Missy is thrilled to spend Christmas vacation with her family, Paul and Rapper. That is, until she wakes up to find her Christmas tree destroyed and her presents missing. Just when it seems things can't get any worse, all clues lead her to believe NME agent Mashela Knavery had everything to do with it. Who says old enemies never return? Will Missy ever get her Christmas back? Will she discover why Mashela's causing such trouble-again? It's going to take a full load of holiday cheer to help the Superkids in this adventure Recommended for ages 10-12 Value: Responding to Persecution
