Please note: new cover design January 2016 The Bewitcher of Beasts is almost a mythical being in Yaarl: the subject of old tales and dire warnings by old grandsires and granddames. Whether he's called a Bewitcher, Singer, Chanter, Whisperer, Beast Rider, Beast Tamer or anything else, it makes no difference; the Bewitcher is said to have strange powers over any animal and is feared and even hated by those who know no better. Of course, nobody has ever actually met such a one and they are extremely unlikely ever to do so as the dreaded Bewitcher is said to occur only once in many generations. A young Tabori priest is sent to his first posting in the little town of Borl Quist, deep in the huge forests of the distant province of Sian. He expects to find a warm welcome among the hospitable foresters who live among the magnificent trees known as Forest Giants and is not disappointed. What he does not expect to find is the Bewitcher who also lives there. So begins this collection of short stories that roughly chronicle the life of Rowan d'Rhys del'Quist – the man who came to be known as Red Rowan, a great hero and legend in his own lifetime. Also included is a preview chapter from the final novel in the Red Rowan trilogy – Red Rowan Book3: The Return of the Reluctant Hero.
