Tom loves Jenny. Tom marries Jenny. Tom and Jenny should live happily ever after--but life intervenes.

Tom gets burned, tries to deny his soul, and loses his way. Then Jenny, the love of his life, leaves him to share a bed with Satan, and Tom's world falls apart. He decides to focus all his time and energy on fixing his life and getting Jenny back. To accomplish this daunting task Tom stops talking and withdraws into himself where he feels certain he can find the answers he's looking for. To get away from outside distractions and well meaning kith and kin he enters a cushy psychiatric center. While in this upscale Booby Hatch Tom finds himself drawn into the lives of his fellow loons.

As he works through his problems Tom rediscovers a part of himself that he thought he had buried a long time ago. He realizes that he's been the unwitting master of his own destruction, and he undergoes a kind of rebirth that puts him in touch with his nature.

Tom learns that sometimes, when God wants to punish you He answers your prayers
