Buck, a cadet at a highly respected military academy, is kicked out of school for what he perceives to be a minor infraction. Thinking that his life is ruined forever, Buck is about to launch himself into the cold, dark, and vastness of space when he meets a cat that will change his life forever. This cat named Davis gives Buck an offer that he could not refuse. Join Buck and his friends as they tackle their first mission together while trying to find a purpose in life.

This fun filled book documents their adventure through time and space. "The Cat Who Said Hi" follows Buck and his friends as they explore the universe aboard a space ship and also across time.
