Lereon is a healthy teenager who lives in a hunting cabin with his mother, isolated from the rest of the medieval world and unaware of how to fight. But all of that is about to change when he encounters a stranger in the woods who seems to know more about him than he does. After Lereon learns that his father was a king who was overthrown by his brother when Lereon was an infant, he is told that he must find his way back to the throne if he wants to avenge his father's death and continue his legacy. With the kingdom of Berothia in disarray, Lereon begins his journey with only a sapphire ring that proves his identity and a hope that he can somehow reclaim the kingdom. But what he does not know is that his uncle is prepared to use any means possible to stop him. In this exciting fantasy, a naïve teenager on a quest to fulfill his destiny discovers he is stronger than he ever imagined he could be.
