MMA Fighter New Adult Romance His tortured past threatens to destroy his future... Mace MMA fighter Mace Alois is in the ring for one reason. To win. But he's fighting for Raleigh Gibson not a championship belt. From the moment her lips touched his, Mace forgot everything else. His need for Raleigh blinded him and now he's paying the price. The demons that haunt this cage fighter are very real. To keep Raleigh alive and get her back body and soul Mace has to let his own beast out of the cage one punch at a time.

She needs him now more than ever and she needs him to win.

Raleigh Raleigh's sheltered life was shattered by passion and a love she didn't believe could be hers. The bad boy next door turned her world around. She thought Mace's past was a painful but distant memory until it puts her life on the line. Mace's love for Raleigh needs to be just as strong as his fists. If not, she's a dead woman.

Raleigh will have to rely on her mind and Mace's body if she's going to survive. Their love and their lives are riding on the action in the octagon.
