Melissa had loved Cole Prescott all of her life, but he hadn't returned her love. Broken hearted, she'd left White Oak, Kansas five years earlier. Now she had come home. She thought she'd put the destructive emotion behind her, until she saw him face to face. Melissa Sutton was back, and Cole's conscious plagued him. He had treated her shamefully, but she'd left town before he could apologize. When he met her again, guilt and love warred for preeminence in his heart.

Lies and misunderstandings had driven them apart. Could they find love again and build a future from the ashes of the past?
