Introducing: Inspector Visco 1 The Lady from Rome A murder Classic Set in the South of Italy in the 1980s, Inspector Visco is an honest Italian cop swimming against a tide of corruption and criminality.

In this case, a simple murder throws up many suspects for Visco to sift through but only one has motive and enough hate to carry out this brutal stabbing. As always with a John Tallon Jones story, you are kept guessing until the very end and are introduced to a host of believable characters in a beautiful but sleazy world of cops, villains and victims. The Lady from Rome is part of the Inspector Visco series. What people are saying 'Deliciously Italian and a real page turner set in the sun' Chester Mail 'Police procedural at its very best. I dare you to guess the murderer' Crime Readers Gazette
