Between financially supporting a family of money hungry vampires and protecting the sole remaining human in her family, Charlotte Reynolds has no time for romance.

But when problems in the worldwide vampire community require her help, she learns that the freedom she's yearned for sometimes comes at too high a price. Can she teach her family to stand on their own? Or will her family's antics destroy her one chance at a love that could last for an eternity? Can she protect her last remaining human sister without sacrificing her own heart's desires? Or will she lose everyone she loves? Warning: This is a New Adult paranormal romance of 100,000 words in length. It contains explicit language and graphic sex scenes. Intended for New Adult, College and Adult readers who like their paranormal romances extra steamy!
