In one of Jaden's secret ventures to the Upperworld, he develops a strange and powerful ability. Or is it... a curse? Can he use his ability to battle the evil that is about to destroy his Underworld home?Or will it destroy him first? Lee Cross, also known as "Wood-Splitter-Lee" was born and raised in the wilds of Alaska. She enjoys using her imagination to create stories, art and sculptures of fantastic creatures... some of which are depicted in her writings. Author's Personal Note: "I view this story as another extension of my artwork.

Any mistakes found in the book are my own! I hope the "Year of the Guardian, Curse of Power" can take you on many unforgettable adventures as it did for me..." <http://wood-splitter-lee.deviantart.com/#>
