The story of stories. Find how stories fight other stories. We all have stories. Throughout our life, we move from one story to another. We have different stories in the childhood, fairy tales for kids and paranormal fantasy magic. Teens have different stories and so as adults. These young adult fantasy stories fight each other. Why do our stories fight? Shirley found the secret behind stories fighting stories. She is on a mission to figure out why and how stories fight. She finds something about the people behind these stories. What does she found? Why stories fight? What is the secret she found? How she reached there? Grab your copy to start your story and to find the secret! Galia Koplis has another story describing tolerance and compassion, focusing on accepting different people and understanding different opinions.
