Sacaria survives yet another attempt on her life, only to find out the hard way that home may not be where the heart lives anymore. She flees to a more welcoming atmosphere, leaving Shay to battle his demons and an unknown enemy alone. Shay quickly learns that moving on is easier said than done. The heart simply wants what it wants. To add to his personal problems, he is on the hunt for the crazy Erica, while trying to see what's really good with his so called friend, Todd. Nothing is as it seems, and Shay is no longer sure who he can trust. Q'Mari and Taleena continue their affair, but then tragedy strikes. In the aftermath, surprising feelings are revealed, and everything changes... again. The ties that bind are stretched to the breaking point in the third installment of this tale of friendship, loyalty and deceit.

Will Sacaria finally get some peace? Will Shay live long enough to truly forgive and forget? When the smoke clears, who will be left standing?
