Nicole is embarrassed about the reason for visiting her doctor, but she is not nearly as embarrassed about having a problem in her most intimate of places as she is about fantasizing of being with her family doctor. When Nicole is alone with her doctor, his somewhat unorthodox suggestions for treatment leave her speech. Excerpt: Nicole quickly undressed, but was too embarrassed to remove her panties. She had been a virgin on her wedding night three years ago, and she was still uncomfortable having anyone but her husband see her “down there.” As she sat on the paper covered table, her anxiety began to build. Dr. Chang would see all of her.

She pictured it in her mind. Her feet would be placed in the cold metal stirrups, her legs spread wide, and then he would see everything.

She wanted to run out of there, but she had come this far. She would look like a fool if she bolted for the door now. The door opened and Dr. Chang walked in.

He was alone. Where was the nurse? A sudden jolt of fear went through Nicole at the thought of being naked and with the doctor alone. Noticing the concern on Nicole’s face, Dr. Chang spoke up. “My nurse had to help triage a trauma patient. You don't mind that it's just you and me, do you?" His eyes were so kind and sweet. Besides, what was going to happen? He was a married man, and she was a married woman. "Now, lie back and try to relax." Nicole lay back on the hard table and closed her eyes. Dr. Chang placed Nicole's feet into the stirrups and eased her knees apart.
