Callie and Jace's story continues the Country at Heart series #2 Callie and Jace have started building themselves a life together on Jace's family ranch. But when Callie gets news about her past it rocks their new peaceful world. The death of Martin has brought up feelings that Callie thought she had buried. Callie wants to trust Jace and lean on him, but she is scared to let him in. Callie and Jace's relationship starts to fall into a downward spiral when Callie is hiding things from Jace. Jace is there for Callie and he doesn't see why she is pushing him away. Can Callie get over her fears before it's too late to save their relationship? Can Callie and Jace get the HEA they both deserve? Warning Above It All is a fictional story that contains sexual content, explicit language and references to sexual abuse and rape. Some scenes may be upsetting to readers and due to its content, Above It All is recommended for mature readers of 18+
