One office party, three couples, lots of secrets. What could possibly go wrong? Harry Augustus, the third generation boss of Augustus Estate Agents, is hosting the biggest and best Christmas party yet. He is pulling out all the stops and has a big announcement to make. Gabby, the glamorous office manager, is in charge of the festive bash. But she's also sleeping with the boss. Their office romance has been anything but subtle and is made more scandalous by the fact that Harry is married with two kids. But theirs is not the only secret relationship in the office... Caroline, Harry's dutiful PA, is dating her irresistible colleague, Rob Sharp, who wants to keep their relationship private so it won't affect his chances of an upcoming promotion.

But Caroline is at her wits end; she'd rather face the inevitable gossip than the icy front Rob puts on in the office. Why does she feel like she's the one having the affair? Gabby takes Caroline for a drink at the 'Olive' to plan the party and tells her she thinks Harry is going to leave his wife for her. That's what the announcement is going to be about. While leaving the bar, Gabby sees Evie and Joseph, two juniors at the company, sharing a tender moment. She thinks they'd make a cute couple but Evie has set her sights on Rob... As Gabby, Caroline and Evie grow closer, their secret relationships threaten to catch up with them. Trouble is brewing... What is Harry's speech going to be about? How will the couples cope when the truth is revealed during a not so secret 'Secret Santa' present swap? Can mistletoe and wine save the day? Praise for Faith Bleasdale: 'Riotously funny' (Company) 'A steamy rampage through London . . .
