Thelma Giomi, author, award-winning poet and psychologist, brings her extensive experience teaching and working in a medical setting, as well as living with a chronic illness to the lives of the four main characters in Shatter My Heart. She immediately immerses the reader in the challenges encountered by Ian, Lauren, Nikki and Paul as their hearts and lives are shattered by illness, loss, infidelity and the demands of commitment to each other. In this dynamic story, the four friends, individually and together, face and overcome some of life's most devastating events. They emerge from these challenges with poise and compassion, becoming the heroes of their own lives.
