Book 5 in the Mystic Valley series. When ex-soldier Pouss receives an unexpected job offer from the mysterious Waterloo Group, she doesn't question the providential timing. Twelve hours later she wishes she had, when she's captured by two sexy blue-skinned warriors-Jonson and Mali of Mystic Valley.

Mali and Jonson make her an offer she can't refuse-become their bond mate. Positive she can use the new relationship to escape, Pouss accepts, but she doesn't count on the physical changes the bonding creates or her constant desire for Jonson and Mali. Their tender touches, hot kisses and even hotter sex get under her skin-which is turning blue As they pursue other escaped team members, she learns real love and desire have no color barriers...and carnal games are best indulged with two hot bond mates.
