Along the side of a dark highway, the Dusk to Dawn Diner awaits your arrival. Somewhere between Interstate 80 and 309 in Northeastern Pennsylvania, Trina, Lisa, and Kevin respond to a Help Wanted sign on the door of the Dusk to Dawn Diner. The diner lives up to its name, only open from dusk to dawn. One night, Kevin's attention is drawn to the padlocked room said to be used for storage after hearing strange noises behind the door. What begins as an ordinary night of work unravels into a night of terror. A night in which some may not make it out alive. Dusk to Dawn is the second book in Stories from Colony Drive, a series of connected short stories that take place primarily in Northeastern Pennsylvania.
